

*“Education is an ornament in prosperity
and a refuge in adversity.”*

- Aristotle -

A photograph of Selkirk Centennial School, a two-story brick building with blue metal accents. A Canadian flag flies on a tall pole to the left. The school's name is visible on the brick wall. Large, bold, black text with a white outline is superimposed over the top half of the image, reading 'CENTENNIAL SCHOOL!'.

CENTENNIAL SCHOOL!

By: Ryan Coffin and Lauren Lee
April 2007

Mission Statement

"The staff and parents of Centennial School are committed to creating a safe and stimulating learning environment devoted to the academic, social, physical and emotional development of the whole child. We will guide our students to develop into respected, responsible and caring individuals."

History

- ❖ Built in 1967
- ❖ Elementary School for Kindergarten – Grade 6
- ❖ In 2000-2005, built four portable classrooms
- ❖ One of the first female principals of the school division, Myrtle Wianko started here.

New Additions

Four portable classrooms were built:

- first in 2000
- second in 2002
- last two in 2005

PROGRAMS

❖ Regular programs include: math, language arts, science, social studies, physical education, health, music and art.

❖ Extra programs include: French, swimming, camp trips, resource, computer, patrols and sports teams.

❖ Camp Arnes, just north of Gimli, provides grades 3 and 5 with a camp program.

❖ School provides a crossing guard program to ensure your child safely crosses the road.

The staff at Centennial School “really enjoy working with the students. With such a dedicated staff the students truly benefit” (Brandson).

