

“Education is a better safeguard of liberty than a standing army.”

- Edward Everett -

Netley Colony School

By: Jessie Vestner,
Kassia Rohm, and
Jordan Bekkering
– April 2007

Where is the School From?

- Originally a Sunday School building in Teulon, Manitoba
- Moved to the colony in fall of 1995

How Big is the School?

- Main floor and basement
- Main floor: 70ft by 28ft
- Library/Music Room located in trailer beside school

Staff

- Kindergarten and Elementary taught by one teacher & one E.A. in the basement
- High school taught by two teachers on main

Education

- Core subjects taught by teachers
- High school students use IITV (Interconnected Interactive Television) for about 1/3 of their

IITV

- Students communicate with teachers through television and camera
- Used instead of teleconference system used in previous years

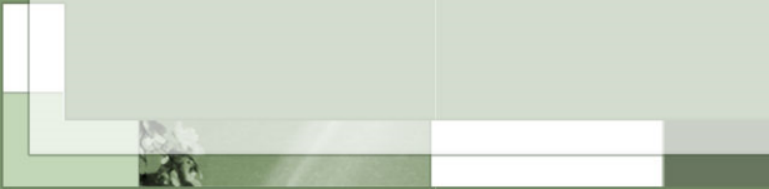

School Hours

- Elementary: 8:00-3:00
- High School: 8:30-3:00

Special Thanks To:

- Hofer, Leonard.
 - Hofer, Ida.
 - Hofer, Ashley.
 - Hofer, Sheri.
-
-

Netley Colony School

